In addition, the following information was furnished concerning driver's license J614788 issued to SALAZAR. His current address is Paseo de la Reforma, 122 Cuarto Piso, Mexico 6, D.F.

From information previously set forth in this matter, it appears that the license plate number in this case was inadvertently misread. It is noted that on California license plates it is difficult to differentiate between an O and a Q.

LA T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 6, 1970, that the captioned event would be held in East Los Angeles on August 29, 1970, to protest the number of Mexican-Americans killed in Viet Nam. The source stated that the moratorium is sponsored by an Ad Hoc Committee, made up of Mexican-Americans from various groups and from all walks of life in the Los Angeles area. The moratorium would consist of a march and rally.

[REDACTED SECTION]

On August 27, 1970, Special Agents of the FBI made the following observations during a demonstration held in the vicinity of the Los Angeles Music Center on that date:

The demonstration was planned to coincide with the appearance of President Richard Nixon and several Cabinet officials at the Music Center. At approximately 5:30 PM, some 100 individuals began an orderly picket line on the sidewalk across from the Music Center. The marchers, at times directed by Robert Kennedy, chanted "Chicano Power", and carried signs

The picket line increased to approximately 300-350 people by 6:30 PM, at which time President Nixon and his party arrived. They were escorted into the Music Center without incident.

The picket line consisted of mostly Mexican-Americans, many of whom were "hippy-type" individuals. Some individuals identified in the picket line were

On August 29, 1970, LA T-1 advised as follows:

Demonstrators began gathering at Belvedere Park in East Los Angeles at approximately 10:30 AM, August 29, 1970. The scheduled plans were to march through several East Los Angeles streets, a distance of approximately five miles, to another park, where a rally was to be held. At 11:00 AM, the actual march began from Belvedere Park with approximately 4,000-5,000 participants. The march proceeded east on Beverly Boulevard to Atlantic Boulevard, then south on Atlantic to Whittier. The marchers occupied the entire width of the various streets, and at 12:00 noon, the line of march was approximately  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile in length, and in some places, 20 abreast. At 12:30 PM, the marchers had turned west on Whittier Boulevard.

The entire march route was patrolled by Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office (LACSO) Deputies, and the LACSO helicopter directed the officers' activities.

The sidewalks along the way were sometimes crowded with on-lookers, some of whom joined in the march. During the course of the march, smoke bombs were set off by unidentified demonstrators.

As marchers proceeded west on Whittier Boulevard, they became more disorderly and at approximately 1:25 PM, some fights broke out along the parade route and some individuals in the crowd began sporadic throwing of rocks and bottles at officers and their vehicles. The crowd continued to grow more disorderly, and by 2:45 PM, there was widespread throwing of rocks and bottles in the areas adjacent to Laguna Park, at Whittier and Alms. Many LACSO officers were injured, and vehicles were damaged. At approximately 3:00 PM, LAPD squads were called in to assist the LACSO Deputies.

Between 3:00 PM, and 4:30 PM, many fires were started in the area, and numerous buildings were burned. LACSO Deputies then blocked off all traffic into the area. By 6:00 PM, most of the crowd had dispersed into small groups, but they remained in the general area, and caused damage to buildings and vehicles.

Many arrests were made, and one individual was shot by LACSO Deputies when he tried to run them down in his car. Both LACSO and LAPD were fully mobilized, and placed on Tactical Alert, with field command posts.

At 10:15 PM, LA T-1 advised that since 6:00 PM, no further incidents had occurred, although LACSO Deputies had withdrawn to the perimeter of the troubled area, and widespread looting was taking place along a 10 to 12 block area of Whittier Boulevard.

The source advised further that one of those arrested was [REDACTED] Source did not know details of the arrest at this time.

[REDACTED]

On August 30, 1970, at approximately 12:00 midnight, the troubled area was relatively quiet, and LACSO and LAPD officers were closely patrolling the area.

As of 12:00 noon, on August 30, 1970, LA T-1 advised that Ruben Salazar, a Los Angeles Times correspondent, is the only known fatality to date. The source stated that LACSO Deputies responded to a call that there were individuals with guns at the Silver Dollar Bar, 4945 Whittier Boulevard. The deputies ordered everyone to exit the bar, and when there was no response, tear gas was fired into the bar. When deputies entered the building, they found Salazar had been fatally wounded in the head by a tear gas shell.

LA T-1 further advised 25 citizens had reportedly been treated for minor injuries, and that 152 arrests had been made, 92 for misdemeanors and 60 for felonies. Twenty-eight LACSO Deputies have been injured, and three were serious enough to require hospitalization, although their exact condition is not known.

Source stated further that property damage in the riot area amounted to an estimated $400,000, and that 173 buildings had been burned or damaged, 7 buildings being completely burned. Twenty-five LACSO vehicles were damaged and one was destroyed by fire.

As of 12:00 noon, August 30, 1970, source further advised the trouble area was quiet, and no additional incidents had occurred. The source stated that a canvas of informants reflected no future plans known to date. LAPD and LACSO still remain on complete tactical alert.

LA T-5 advised that as of 9:00 PM, on August 30, 1970, the troubled area was still relatively quiet. There were a few instances of small groups gathering, but they dispersed without incident. There have been one or two isolated instances of objects thrown at patrol cars, and one arrest has been made; however, details of arrest were not available at that time. The source added that no information had been developed concerning plans of the protesters. He added that an absence of out-of-state cars possibly indicated these people have departed the city.

[REDACTED]

The parade started around 11:00 AM, and proceeded to Laguna Park. Source observed a large number of Chicano youth gangs between the ages of 15 to 16 years, consuming large quantities of beer and wine. The aroma of marijuana was also strongly prevalent in the area of the groups. Source noted at the time, the temperature was in the mid-nineties, and the combination of these circumstances appeared to be one of the causative factors in the disorderly activity which followed.

Source stated that around 3:30 PM, the Chicano youth groups began taunting the LAPD and LACSO officers, and shortly thereafter, they began hurling rocks, bottles, and street debris at the officers. At this time, the groups were approximately one block from the Silver Dollar Bar on Whittier Boulevard.
